USPA NEWS - The Bab Ighli village is preparing to host the 22nd Conference of Parties (COP22) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) from November 7-18 in Marrakech, Morocco. 20,000 participants are expected on the site from 196 countries.

The Bab Ighli village is preparing to host the 22nd Conference of Parties (COP22) to the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change (UNFCCC) from November 7-18 in Marrakech, Morocco. 20,000 participants are expected on the site from 196 countries.

55 tents, assembled in less than 3 months constitute the COP22 village, including two distinct zones.-----

The Green Zone, with a surface area of more than 30,000m², will welcome the Civil Society and Innovation spaces. Representatives from various companies from Morocco and around the world will be present along with NGOs, associations and civil society member groups.------

Exhibitor stands are in the process of being assembled and the final touches of the exterior of the site are underway. Conference rooms and plenaries are already functional. Source COP22
